

2026 AHP Convene Canada Conference

May 13-15, 2026 | Calgary, AB

Request for Education Proposals

Submission Guide

Welcome to the Submission Guide

Thank you for your interest in presenting at the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP) Convene Canada conference. This Submission Guide provides the information you need to know to submit a proposed session for the conference.

Whether you are a seasoned presenter or are new to the AHP stage, we appreciate your willingness to contribute an educational session and look forward to reviewing your proposal.

About the Conference

The Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP)'s annual Convene Canada conference is designed by and for the Canadian healthcare philanthropy community. Featuring inspiring keynote speakers, in-depth educational breakout sessions and plenty of networking opportunities, Convene Canada is the place for education specific to your needs as a healthcare fundraiser. The 2026 conference will take place at the Westin Calgary.

Instructional Design

To help make 2026 the best Convene Canada conference yet, AHP is seeking educational proposals that reflect sound adult learning principles and exemplify the best thinking in the field, informed by theory, research and practice. Each proposal should provide actionable insights that empower philanthropy professionals and inspire meaningful progress.

To deliver effective learning experiences, AHP welcomes proposals that:

- Reflect innovative and forward-thinking content and evidence-based practice
- Address specific career stages: early, mid, or advanced
- Encourage discussion and active audience participation
- Tackle essential, timely topics relevant to today's healthcare foundations
- Present a clear business case supported by research or data
- Explore issues important to diverse foundation types and sizes
- Challenge attendees to think of new solutions in healthcare philanthropy
- Feature engaging, creative learning formats to meet different learning styles
- Share practical examples and actionable takeaways (e.g. tools)

Topic Areas

As you reflect on your proposal, please consider the following topics, which are of interest to the conference participants. While proposals may address more than one area, you must select one as the best fit. Example topics noted are intended to help you develop your session, but we welcome and encourage additional ideas as well.

- Major, Transformational and Legacy Giving. Sessions in this category include everything to do with ways an organization can secure large gifts.
- Working with Partners. Sessions in this category might be about working with physicians, administrative leaders, hospital staff, provincial/community leadership, or other community nonprofits.
- Community Giving. Sessions in this category might be about annual giving, digital fundraising, or special events.
- Mid-Level Giving. Sessions in this category might be about tactics for mid-level donors, which programs they fit in, or how to move donors up the ladder – annual to mid-level, mid-level to major.
- Building Strong Teams. Sessions in this category might be about keeping staff engaged and motivated, board and volunteer relations, or remote work.
- Marketing & Communications. Sessions in this category might be about storytelling, integrated marketing, or public relations.
- Information and its Impact. Sessions in this category might be about data, research, or artificial intelligence.
- Support Services for Advancement. Sessions in this category might be about stewardship, donor relations, prospect research, finance, or operations.
- Equity, Diversity and Inclusion. Sessions in this category might be about building an inclusive culture and team, attracting diverse talent, or working with diverse communities and donors. Sessions could also explore the future of EDI given the current landscape.
- Other

In addition to the broad topics listed above, AHP is particularly interested in reviewing session proposals that address any of the following specific areas:

- AI and digital transformation.
- Building a culture of philanthropy, including at the board level.
- Capital campaigns: Traditional vs. non-traditional campaigns; new or unique ways of approaching campaigns.

- Case studies of successful projects in small or rural foundations, or sessions otherwise designed for organizations with 1-5 staff members.
- Events and galas. Are they still profitable? How are organizations using events as part of their larger strategy?
- Generational giving: How different generations approach philanthropy, and strategies for engaging multiple generations (Gen Z through Baby Boomers)
- Grateful engagement.
- Navigating the escalating financial demands and scope of projects being expected of the sector, including best practices for managing the relationship between the foundation and the hospital or health centre it serves.
- Marketing in campaigns. How are communication teams scoring wins and getting the message out in unique and engaging ways?
- Multi-generational philanthropy: How to maintain a family connection throughout generations; grandparents and legacy giving.
- Sponsorships and corporate partnerships.
- Strategies for volunteer retention, including volunteer appreciation programs.
- The changing landscape of philanthropy: How changing donor philosophies, methods of giving, and the socioeconomic climate are informing philanthropy professionals' work.
- The leadership journey: How to move from front-line fundraiser to executive leader.

Learning Formats

Adult learners usually prefer to engage in self-directed learning, and that philosophy drives AHP's approach to conference programming. Learning formats support a range of instructional methods that give attendees more control over setting priorities and choosing the right content, materials, and methods that match their learning styles and objectives.

For Convene Canada 2026, AHP seeks proposals in the following learning formats:

Education Session – Case Study Presentation (45 minutes + 15 minute Q&A)

A formal presentation usually given by 1-3 content leaders, highlighting one or more case studies.

Education Session – Panel (60 minutes)

A discussion with 1 moderator and up to 4 panelists presenting perspectives around a specific topic.

Education Session – Seminar (45 minutes + 15 minute Q&A)

A formal presentation usually given by 1-3 content leaders, presenting new information, such as a research report, on a specific topic.

Express Talks (15-20 minutes)

A TED-style talk given by 1 content leader that explores a single idea with practical tips through storytelling.

Roundtable Discussion (45-60 minutes)

Convene Canada's roundtable discussions are always one of the most popular parts of the conference. Propose a roundtable topic for the committee's consideration that you would be interested in helping to lead.

Professional Pathway

AHP's Professional Pathway educational framework organizes content into three knowledge levels. For learning programs, these levels relate to prerequisite learner knowledge, instructional techniques, and complexity of the learning objectives.

- Fundamental (0-3 years): Courses provide broad information, awareness and understanding of a topic with limited or no prior knowledge or experience of the subject required. They transfer new information without substantial prerequisite knowledge to process or use it. This level is appropriate for employees or managers with limited experience of the subject area seeking to learn fundamentals, mid-career managers and directors looking to fill in gaps to solidify their skill set and individuals new to the field before or after a career change.

- Specialist (3-8 years): Courses focus on extensive application, comprehension, and implementation with in-depth material or explanation by the instructor, preparing learners to exhibit a definitive skill. They are highly interactive, including case studies and assessment measures and require the learner to be more engaged, interacting with the material and using the information in practical applications, and therefore require some prerequisite knowledge. This level is appropriate for individuals with some knowledge and experience in the subject area, individuals who are mid-level managers and directors in their fields with an established degree of competence and for those seeking to build on, apply or enhance existing knowledge.

- Executive (8+ years): Courses focus on high-level creativity, innovation and peer-to-peer knowledge sharing around of highly technical or detailed topics, preparing learners to shape organizational strategy and aid in the growth or progress of industry best practices. The course material and activities focus on problem identification, analysis and solutions while emphasizing risk-taking, autonomy and opportunities for exploration. Objectives may be to enhance the learner's ability to lead change, manage high-performing teams, and develop leadership throughout their organizations. This level is appropriate for senior staff, executives and officers with significant knowledge and experience who could be deemed an expert in the field.

Proposal Process and Selection Criteria

AHP strives to be inclusive and diverse when reviewing session proposals. The review process combines volunteer and staff input to give members of the healthcare philanthropy community a significant voice in co-creating the conference programming. Together, members and staff ensure that program content is timely, relevant, and targeted to attendee needs.

1. Conference Committee The 2026 Convene Canada Conference Committee will assist in the final program design. To ensure that program content is timely, relevant, and optimally targeted to participants' needs, the advisory committee will select from the submissions received through the Request for Proposals and identify gaps, if any, which are addressed through additional content development strategies. The overall program will result in a diverse array of presenters and topics. We receive many high-quality proposal submissions each year, so please understand that it is a difficult and highly selective process.

2. AHP Staff With years of experience in association management and a long history of programming exceptional conferences, selected AHP staff members weigh in with feedback and strike a balance between new and veteran presenters. Staff also help ensure the content lineup is strategically aligned, working to systematically identify and fill gaps where appropriate.

Selection Criteria

All proposals are evaluated on the following five criteria:

- Ability to Inspire Action (20%): The proposed session should motivate participants to take action in some way. It should teach either tactical or strategic lessons that participants can implement in their organization.
- Originality (20%): The proposed session should teach a new concept or take a new angle on a classic topic. Ideally, some element of the session will be new to most participants.
- Program Design (20%): The learning objectives and instructional flow should clearly demonstrate how participants will benefit from this session.
- Relevance to Healthcare Philanthropy (20%): The proposed session should be specifically designed for healthcare philanthropy professionals, as opposed to a more general submission about philanthropy. AHP members in particular should find it valuable.
- Overall Quality (20%): The different elements of the proposal, combined, should demonstrate consistent design and thoughtfulness that create a session that conference participants will find valuable.

Guidelines for Potential Presenters

- All proposals must be submitted using the online form, no exceptions. You can submit up to two (2) proposals as the primary contact, so be thoughtful about what you submit.
- Plan your submission in advance. We suggest that you first collect your thoughts for your proposal before going to the online form. Review the form at the end of this document to prepare your proposal. Once you have your ideas and all necessary information together, visit this link to begin. The system does allow you to save and return to your proposal later.
- AHP encourages you to be cautious about how many proposals you are included in as a presenter or panelist. While AHP does not limit presenters to a maximum number of speaking engagements, AHP will give preference (all other factors being equal) to maximizing the number of content leaders to ensure diversity of thought.
- The primary contact is the person submitting the proposal. AHP will communicate with the primary contact for all communications including notifications and deadlines, who must share information as needed with co-leaders/panelists.
- All proposed content leaders must be listed. Intentionality is critical in providing a quality learning experience, including the expertise of instructors. Proposed content leaders will be reviewed by the Convene Canada Conference Committee prior to acceptance.
- Use clear, error free language. The quality of the written proposal is reflective of the quality of the potential session. Approach this as you would a proposal to a grant funder or major donor. AHP looks for clear and concise titles, persuasive outcomes-focused descriptions, and clear learning objectives. Tell us why an attendee should come to your session and what they'll learn from it. AHP retains the right to modify titles and descriptions for marketing purposes.
- Don't underestimate the importance of instructional flow/design. Adult learning theory suggests the best learning environments are collaborative, with a problem-based approach.
- Avoid all commercial bias. Affiliate members of AHP, who represent for-profit organizations such as consultants and vendors, are welcome to submit session proposals. However, sessions perceived by participants as commercially biased in content (including use of proprietary tools/models) are unacceptable. Any submission that is not educational in nature, neutral and unbiased, replicable by participants without the author's assistance, and free of commercial motive/intent will not be accepted. If accepted, those in violation of this policy may forfeit future presenting opportunities.

- First here, first heard. We seek to create an exclusive and premiere event for the healthcare philanthropy community, and therefore (other factors being equal) priority is given to proposals that include original content designed exclusively for Convene Canada that has not been presented at other AHP or non-AHP philanthropy-related events.
- All accepted content leaders must adhere to published deadlines. You must be committed and responsive to working with AHP to deliver exceptional service by adhering to deadlines, to include submitting program materials not less than one (1) month prior to the start of the conference for review/approval and inclusion in the conference app and website.
- All accepted content leaders must observe intellectual property rights. Presenters must ensure that information or images contained in presentation materials shall be factual and not be misleading and will not violate the intellectual property or copyrights of any third party.
- All accepted presenters must register. Each presenter will register for the conference by the required deadline. Presenters are responsible for all individual travel costs. In the interest of increasing access and equity, accepted presenters with financial need will have an opportunity to apply for limited financial support. All accepted presenters will be able to register for the conference at a discounted rate. Presenters who are not taking part in any other part of the conference beyond their presentation must register but are not charged a fee. In the event of exceptions (such as Exhibitor personnel or award winners) registration may be handled differently.
